G. W. Hanks of Corsicana is visiting in the city.
Miss Jewell Frazier is the guest of Mrs. Lillybridge.
Miss Ruth James of Oakwoods is a visitor to the city.
Sam Lucas is busy moving into his Main street store.
W. W. Kennard and wife of San Antonio are in the city.
Mrs. McLain is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hufsmith.
Mrs. McLarin of Crockett is a guest of Mrs. P. H. Hughes.
Attorney W. C. Campbell left this morning for Centerville.
Attorney J. F. Weeks went up to Jacksonville this morning.
A native Japanese and a native Filipino are guests in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Noble are home from a vacation on the big lakes.
Mrs. Mary Carter is the guest of Mrs. O. J. Duguey on Royall street.
Mrs. Adam Schnoor and children are home from their summer trip.
Mrs. Doyle is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. J. Price, during the Carnival.
Charley Watts returned home last night from business college at Dallas.
Mrs. Adam Schnoor and family have returned from a visit to Los Angeles, Cal.
Louis J. Wortham, world's fair commissioner, will be in the city tomorrow.
Misses Tiny Dobbs and Annie Rice of Tyler are guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Dobbs.
Mrs. Ash and daughter, Miss Stella, are home from the millinery centers of the east.
Mrs. Lillie B. Hughes of Dallas is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Fletcher Watts.
Mrs. Robert Gibson and daughter are home from their summer vacation in Sedalia, Mo.
Miss Della Claridge arrived last night from San Antonio, to visit during the Carnival.
Abe Rich and family of Mart are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Teah, on Magnolia street.
Mrs. Cross returned to her home in Fort Worth today, after a visit to her cousin, Mrs. W. J. Norman.
Mrs. Mary Douglas arrived in the city this afternoon from Crockett, and will be the guest of Mrs. Numsen.
Miss Beulah Arnold, a Palestine favorite, but now living in Austin, is the guests of friends during the Carnival.
T. J. Claiborne, brother of Mrs. Finley Evans is here to attend the U. D. C. ball tonight and spend Carnival week.
Mrs. Carrie Moore and Miss June Day of Overton came in today at noon to attend the Carnival. They are the guests of their sister, Mrs. Fred M. Caldwell.
A. C. Bird, general traffic manager of the Gould lines, passed through Palestine today on No. 1 and was joined here by Mr. Trice, both going west.
Many people are having the Herald sent to out of town friends during the Carnival, that they may see what is transpiring in our beautiful city. A good idea.

Mrs. John Mitchell came in from Dallas last night, a visit to her niece, Mrs. Henry Hewett. This is Mrs. Mitchell's first visit to Palestine in sixteen years.
Sam H. Dixon is in the city in the interest of the Texas exhibit for the St. Louis World's Fair. He thinks the Carnival exhibit can materially contribute to the Texas display.
Leo Davidson has returned from the markets. Apropos, Mr. Davidson and family are about ready to move into one of the prettiest new homes in Palestine, located on Magnolia street.
C. W. Ham of the 26th Infantry band, was a pleasant caller at the Herald office this morning. He has just lately returned with his company from the Philippines and says he is glad to get back to the States.
Grand Chancellor Commander J. F. Olson of San Antonio will arrive in the city tonight from the north, and will be at the meeting of Rotherwood Lodge, K. of P., tonight, where work in all degrees will be exemplified.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Signor are home from their bridal tour. They are at home at present on Magnolia street, with Mr. Signor's parents, but are building a home of their own in North Palestine, and will occupy it in the near future.
Miss Kate Hunter will begin the fall term of her music class Monday, Sept. 21st. All pupils are requested to meet at her residence, 209 Sycamore street, Saturday morning, Sept. 19th, at 11 o'clock, to organize. New pupils can be registered at this time. 15 ct.
Mrs. Georgia A. Mickleborough of Navasota, Texas, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Finley C. Evans. Mrs. Mickleborough is a lady of most excellent taste, and comes as a special guest of the Grimes county committee to superintend the arrangement of the Grimes county booth.

More Buildings.

Work is to begin soon on a handsome two-story brick, by Mr. Joe Murphy, next door to the postoffice. It is also possible Dr. Link will build on the adjoining corner at the same time. If so, a handsome fifty foot front will be designed for the two buildings.

Eugene Fore will soon begin work on a brick house on Main street, opposite the Davis (formerly Tremont) hotel. He will occupy the building with his wholesale commission business.

Sacrifice Sale

Two houses adjoining on Conrad street, worth $2000, for $1300; must sell at once.

Sam Howard, Agent.
Telephone 48.

Fair Weather.

Our local weather man, P. McDonough, says indications are for fair weather for the three Carnival days. He says it is possible we may get some showers, but no storms are threatening for this section.

The city schools will open on Monday, September 21st.

The Play.

"Looking for a Wife," a musical comedy, opened the season at the Temple last evening, playing to good business, especially in the gallery. The show was a disappointment, excepting a few features. The solos of Miss Tilson were very acceptable, as was a baritone solo by Mr. Cluxton. A dancing specialty by the Dempsey sisters was very clever, and some of the chorus work was acceptable. The comedy parts were below par.

Durr's Corner.

Hundreds of people in Palestine will welcome the re-establishment of Durr's corner, or rather its accessibility again. This is one of the historical spots of the city, and a meeting place for many conferences. Messrs. Durr & Son have a pretty new store as well.

You Are Cordially Invited.
